Ossining Students of Color Hosts Forum on Activities Designed for African-American and Latino Students

(OSSINING, NY) – Ossining Students of Color will host a forum on the purpose and goals of the variety of clubs, organizations and extra-curricular activities designed for Ossining’s African-American and Latino students on Saturday, March 29, at the Ossining Public Library from 9 to 11:30 a.m.

Dr. Adelaide Sanford, former vice chancellor of the New York State Board of Regents, master educator and advocate for children, will address the audience.

The Ossining Union Free School District, nationally recognized for its mission to further the success of all children, serves approximately 4,200 pupils in six schools: Roosevelt School for newborn to four-year-olds, Park Early Childhood Center for kindergarten through first grade, Brookside School for grades two and three, Claremont School for grades four and five, Anne M. Dorner Middle School for grades six through eight, and Ossining High School for grades nine through 12. (3/2008)
